

Chiral molecules lack an internal plane of symmetry and can exist as non-superimposable mirror images or enantiomers. Nineteen of the 209 PCB congeners are chiral molecules.