REPRODUCTIVE EPIDEMIOLOGY: PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE

18 October 2019
NIEHS
Room F193 (extra seating in D350)

8:30-9:00 AM Registration

9:00-10:00 AM
Welcome
  Darryl Zeldin (5 min)
  Dale Sandler (5 min)
Speakers (Sandler, Moderator)
  Donna Baird (20 min), “Epidemiology as a tool of reproductive biology”
  Nigel Paneth (20 min), “Three perinatal epidemiologic findings that have impacted public health”

  (10 minutes of transition time, technology issues, questions)

10:00-10:30 AM Break

10:30-11:40
Speakers (Kelly Ferguson, Moderator)
  Rolv Terje Lie (20 min), “Scandinavia: A laboratory for perinatal epidemiologic research”
  Olga Basso (20 min), “The unique and thorny methodological challenges that arise in perinatal epidemiology”
  Clare Weinberg (20 min), “Reproductive epidemiology and its contributions to epidemiologic methods”

  (10 minutes of transition time, technology issues, questions)

11:40-1:00 PM
Lunch (available for purchase in the cafeteria)

1:00 – 1:10
Reflections from the NIEHS Director’s Office
  Linda Birnbaum

1:10-2:20 PM
Speakers (Anne Marie Jukic, Moderator)
  Rolv Skjaerven (20 min), “The contributions of the Norwegian Medical Birth Registry to perinatal epidemiology”
  Irva Hertz-Picciotto (20 min), “Environment, gestation, timing, and beyond”
Pierre Buekens (20 min), “Disruptive reproductive and perinatal epidemiology”

(10 minutes of transition time, technology issues, questions)

2:20-2:50 PM Break

2:50-4:00 PM
Speakers (Quaker Harmon, Moderator)
- Ken Rothman (20 min), “Scientific journals as advocates for good science”
- David Savitz (20 min), “The birth and maturation of perinatal epidemiology”
- Allen Wilcox (20 min), “The future of reproductive epidemiology”

(10 minutes of transition time, technology issues, questions)

4:00-5:00 PM Reception in the cafeteria and patio.