

THE INTERNATIONAL CHEMICAL WORKERS UNION COUNCIL INFECTIOUS DISEASES TRAINING PROGRAM

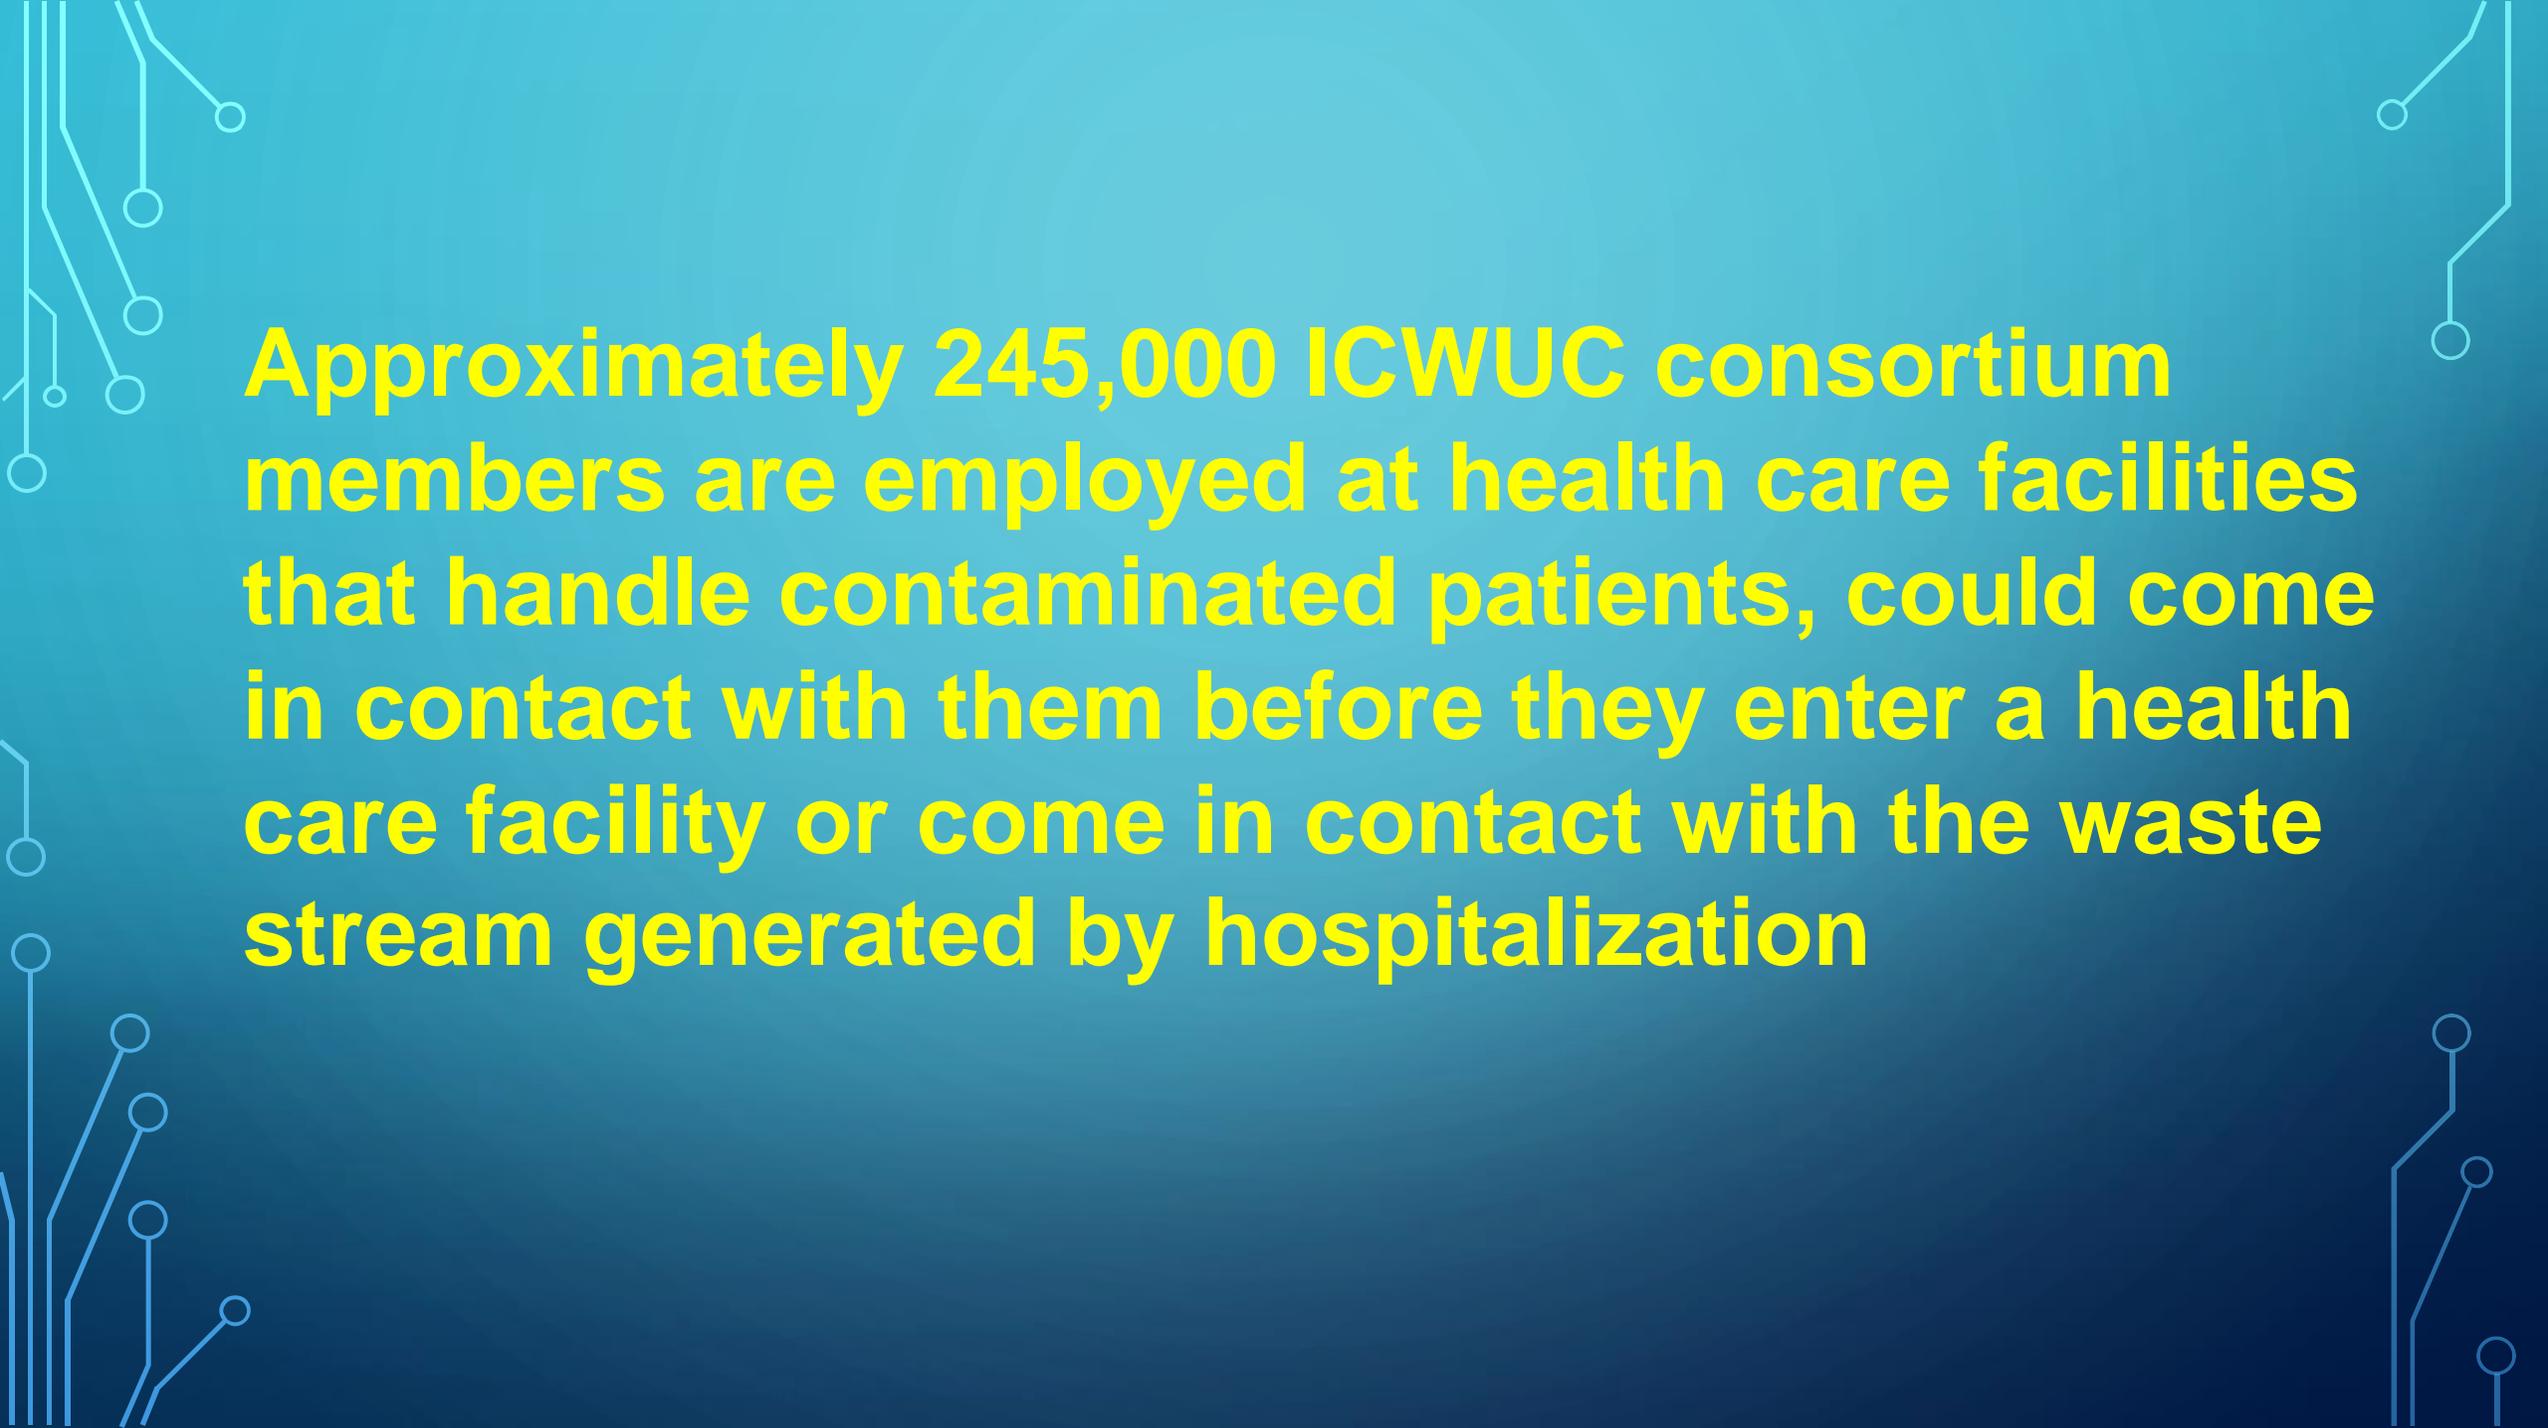

The Consortium of the ICWUC Center for Worker Health and Safety Education in Cincinnati, Ohio includes:

- American Federation of Government Employees (AFGE)
- American Federation of Teachers Educational Foundation (AFT)
- International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers Corporation for Re-Employment and Safety Training (IAM)
- National Nurses United (NNU)
- United Food and Commercial Workers (UFCW)
- University of Cincinnati (UC)
- Coalition of Black Trade Unionists (CBTU)
- Labor Center for Latin American Advancement (LCLAA, new Consortium partner in August, 2015)
- National COSH (NCOSH, new Consortium partner in May, 2015)

The image features a dark blue background with light blue decorative circuit-like lines in the corners. The lines consist of straight segments connected by small circles, resembling a network or data flow diagram. The text is centered and written in a bold, yellow, sans-serif font.

ICWUC's consortium partners represent different national at-risk working populations, a wide variety of jobs and tasks potentially exposing those workers to a wide variety of infectious agents, and their respective unions are taking the initiative to conduct awareness training of their membership.

The ICWUC, UFCW, IAM, NNU, CBTU, AFT, AFGE, NCOSH and LCLAA combined, represent over 3.7 million workers in all 50 states and Puerto Rico, many with full time or collateral duty for chemical emergency response.

The background is a solid blue color. In the four corners, there are decorative white line-art patterns that resemble circuit traces or neural network connections, with small circles at the end of the lines.

Approximately 245,000 ICWUC consortium members are employed at health care facilities that handle contaminated patients, could come in contact with them before they enter a health care facility or come in contact with the waste stream generated by hospitalization

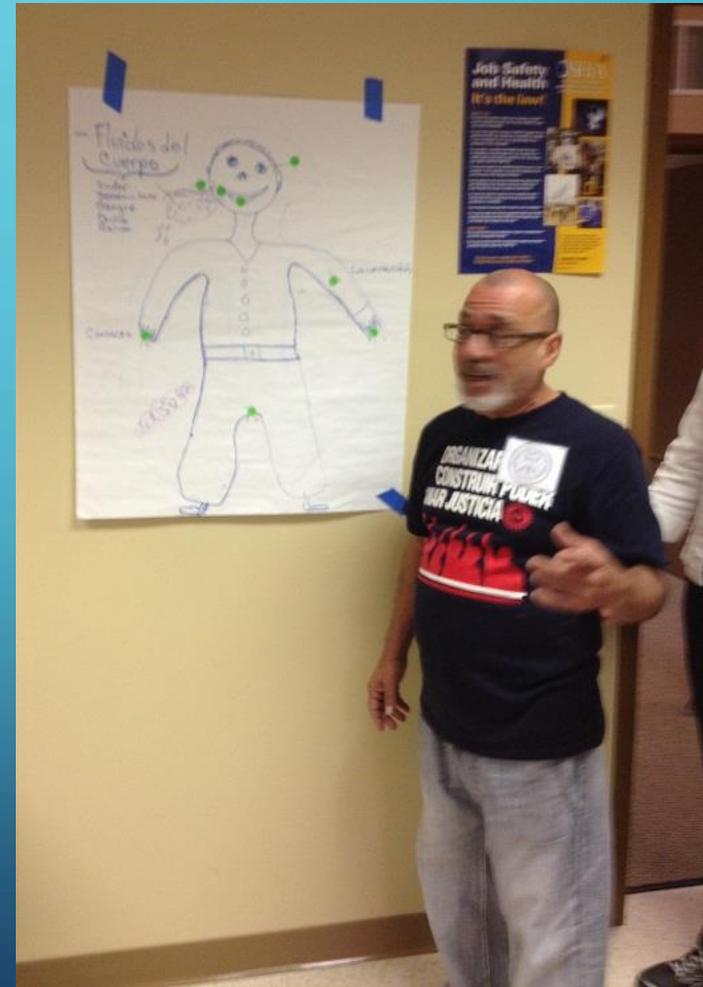

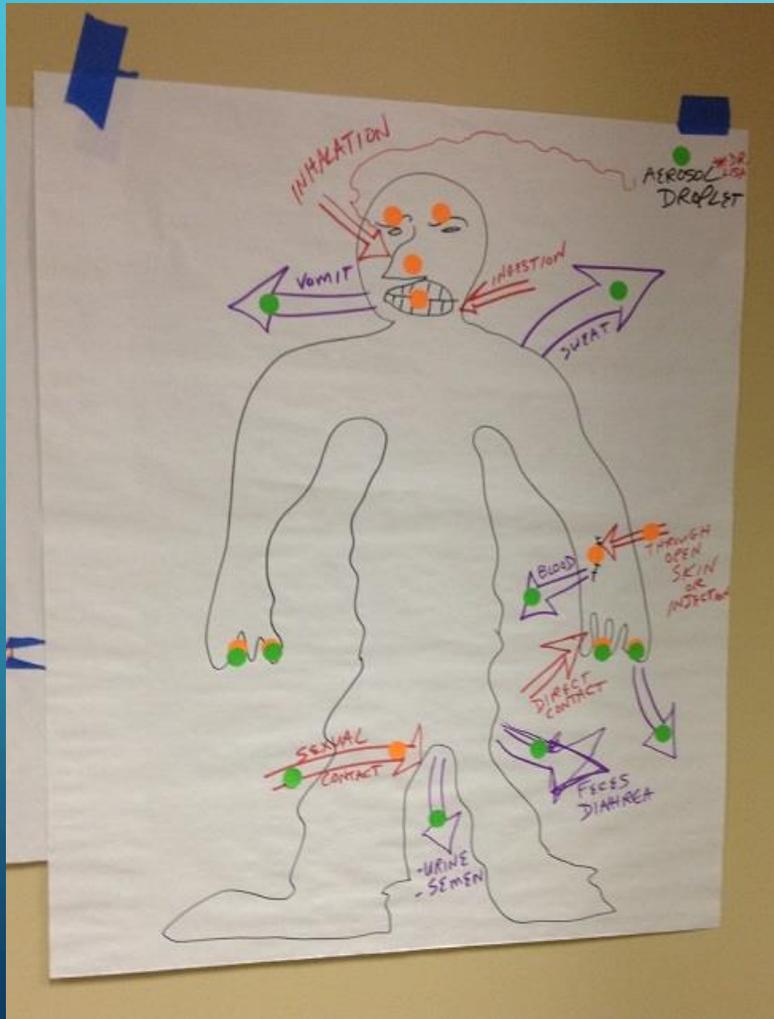

3 New Partners on this Project:

- American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME)
- The Midwest Consortium, an existing NIEHS grantee
- SEIU Local 1199.
